

English teacher position at the LFKL

Primary School Teacher

The French School of Kuala Lumpur Henri Fauconnier is recruiting a primary school teacher to work as English teacher at the primary school levels from September 2018.

We are a multicultural, international French school located in the heart of Asia with a student body and faculty comprised of both English and French speakers.

The French curriculum is delivered mostly in French and for some topics in English as well. The French teachers and the English teacher are working in close collaboration.

Job Position

- Full-time position teaching of 27 hours per week
- The successful candidate will share three classes of the same level with their French counterparts

Requirements

- Certified teacher (by September 2018)
- Preferably Native English speaker or bilingual French teacher
- Enthusiasm, creativity and flexibility: successful candidates should be willing to work in partnership with their colleagues on cross-curricular and extra-curricular activities
- Ability and willingness to create and share resources and to adapt to the French syllabus and French education system

Priority will be given to candidates with a working knowledge of French

Interested candidates should send a Curriculum Vitae (with photo), cover letter and any other document to the following address:

Primary head teacher: Mr Paul-Marie Blanchard

Email address: dir.prim@lfkl.edu.my